Financial

Tuition and Fee Charges
Payment of tuition, fees, and other charges owed to Virginia State University is the responsibility of the student. Failure to pay tuition and fees could result in administrative withdrawal from the university. The university will hold transcripts and block registration for students who fail to pay fees, fines, damages. Collection agencies also may be used by the university to collect unpaid fees or fines.

In-State Tuition Eligibility
All applicants who desire to qualify for in-state tuition rates under Section 23-7.4 of the Code of Virginia, must complete the domicile eligibility form which may be obtained from the Office of Student Activities.

Library

Located in the center of campus, Johnston Memorial Library houses primary and secondary materials needed to support the academic and research programs of the University. It provides a full complement of research and information services to the University community. The Library contains approximately 280,200 monographs, approximately 1,200 periodicals and newspapers, 704,983 microform pieces, 81,153 audiovisual pieces including government publication and musical scores.

The Library participates in a statewide electronic resource sharing consortium, the Virtual Library of Virginia (VIVA). The Library provides local and remote access to 180 databases, over 8,800 full text journals and newspapers, nearly 10,000 full text works of poetry and verse drama, and over 300,000 additional full text materials, including statistical reports and pamphlets. In-house and remote access to the book and serial collections is provided by the VTLS Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC) with special services for the visually impaired. The library management systems have been in operation since 1989 and supports cataloging, serials, circulation, reserved materials and provides access to the online public access catalog.

The Instructional Materials Lab houses videos, laserdisk, audiotapes and other media. A wheel chair accessible multimedia workstation is available for use.

The Library has seating capacity for 600 students and shelving capacity for approximately 300,000 books. Facilities include exhibit areas, conference and study rooms, and individual study carrels. Selected study rooms are equipped for computer access. The Library also has two Internet search labs and a bibliographic instruction lab with over 50 computers for research use.

Full reference service is available to the entire University community. The Reference Department provides interlibrary loan services through cooperative lending agreements. The Special Collections Department, with a full-time archivist, contains historical documents, memorabilia, and artifacts, which are available to both the campus community and other researchers. The Library has a separate Instructional Materials Laboratory, containing films, slides cassettes, CD ROMs, laser disks, and videos which faculty and students can use for presentations. A full multimedia workstation is also available for wheel chair accessibility. In addition, the Library has a Kurzweil machine and large print software for the visually impaired.

The Library is a selective depository for United States and Virginia government publications. The collection of more than 197,079 federal and state documents offers a wealth of information.

Johnston Memorial Library is handicapped accessible.
Student Services

In support of the academic mission of the University, Student Affairs efforts are directed toward creating an environment in which students’ personal and professional goals are actualized. In that there is a generally acceptable knowledge that students’ physical, psychological, intellectual, and social needs are developing simultaneously, all programs and services are aimed at assisting the student develop as a complete individual, capable of functioning responsibly within their academic environment and in the society in which he/she will ultimately live.

Career Planning and Placement

The Career Planning and Placement Center is a vital part of the educational and student development process at Virginia State University. It provides career planning and placement assistance to students and graduates. The Center serves as a vehicle in interpreting the University’s programs and promoting the attributes of its graduates to business, industry and government. The major aim of the Center is to assist students in obtaining the most benefits possible from their college education through satisfying career placement upon graduation.

The objectives of the Center are achieve through a well-rounded program which provides students with a resource library containing video and printed materials, automated resume’ preparation and a job referral system, on-campus interview, workshops and seminars on job search skills, and interviewing techniques.

Federal Programs

Through federal grants, the University provides special academic and counseling support services to eligible university students, high school students, and dropouts from the community. These services are available through the University’s Educational Talent Search, Upward Bound, and Student Support Services Program. For more information about these programs, contact the specific program area.

Immunizations

Virginia State University requires a physical examination for all first-time enrollees (freshmen transfer and graduate students) as well as a health history and immunization record to be submitted to Student Health Service prior to registration for classes. Any student who cannot produce an up-to-date immunization record must be reimmunized at his/her expense. Registration cannot be completed until the Student Health Service Health Evaluation Form is completed.

Insurance

Health and accident insurance is strongly encouraged for full-time students. Students who have no coverage, may enroll in the University Plan. Students who wish to supplement their existing coverage, may enroll in the University-sponsored insurance plan. The plan is honored worldwide and is valid twenty-four (24) hours a day.

National Student Exchange

The National Student Exchange provides students with the opportunity to study up to one year at one of 176 colleges and universities and three (3) U.S. territories without having to pay the high cost of out-of-state tuition. Payment of tuition is made in one of two ways. Using Plan A, students pay their tuition and fees to the host institution. Using Plan B, students pay their tuition and fees to Virginia State University. Room and board fees are the responsibility of the students and are paid directly to the host institution. Virginia State University only uses Plan B.
Virginia State University students who participate in the NSE program remain as degree-seeking, registered students at Virginia State University. Any financial aid that is normally available can be applied to the exchange obligations. Because NSE is an officially approved program of the University, all courses with their respective credit hours and earned grades will be recorded on the Virginia State University transcript and be calculated into the GPA.

New Student Orientation Program

The New Student Orientation Program (NSOP) is designed to introduce incoming freshmen and other new students to the University to academic and other support resources and to general expectations, all designed to promote a good early start and to increase each student’s potential for academic success.

University-wide collaboration for academic advisement, registration, and a comprehensive introduction to campus life are main components of the program. Students are informed about facilities, resources, and support services available at the University.

All new freshmen who have received official notification of acceptance to the University are required to participate in the New Student Orientation Program. NSOP sessions are scheduled for each academic year.

University College

The University College focuses on the goal of improving student retention and graduation rates at the University. The University College has three key academic components to provide students with the support and tools they need to be successful: 1) Student Enhancement and Support Services (formerly the Academic Success Center); 2) First Year Experience Program; and 3) Academic Advising and Personal Life Coaching.

International Student Advisement

The International Student Advisement service assists all international students and exchange visitors with the submission of forms as needed according to the U. S. Department of Justice, Immigration and Naturalization Service. The office also sponsors field trips and campus activities to afford students the opportunity to become better acquainted with American culture and the VSU campus community.

Veteran Students Advisement

The Veterans Affairs Office seeks to serve veterans and dependents by keeping them abreast of their allowances, awards, rights, privileges and responsibilities in accordance with the codes of the contract made between the University, the Veterans Administration and the U. S. Department of Education.

Withdrawals and General Counseling

The staff of the Academic Support Center cannot excuse absences; but it does provide absentee notification to instructors for any student encountering an emergency that requires an absence of 3 or more days. Students wishing to discontinue studies at the University will start the withdrawal process at the ASC with counselors who are understanding and will help students through the withdrawal process while ensuring that all possible options are considered for remaining at VSU.

For services, please contact the Academic Support Center at Virginia State University, P.O. Box 9034 Petersburg, Virginia 23806, phone (804) 524-6755.

Counseling Services

Counseling Services provides services to the student body in individual counseling, group counseling and crisis intervention. Counseling Services is located in Room 412 Memorial Hall. All services are provided by appointment and are strictly confidential.
Public Safety

The Department of Police and Public Safety is charged with and dedicated to the task of protecting life and property on the campus of the University. The ultimate objective of the department is the establishment and maintenance of an environment on the campus, which is safe, sane, secure and conducive to high quality human endeavor.

Residence Life

Virginia State University recognizes and emphasizes the housing of students as a vital part of the total experience of higher education. To this end, the University’s residence hall program strives for the development of socially effective citizens in a democratic society. Social and educational programs within the residence halls are designed not only to enrich and enhance development, but to act as a catalyst to maximize self control, self discipline, and acceptance of responsibility for one’s behavior. The residence hall staff members are selected individuals dedicated to making the residence halls the best possible places to live. Students are encouraged to go the them to get acquainted and to receive assistance, advice, and guidance.

Student Commuter Services

The Office of Commuter Services assists students with housing, transportation, and consumer needs which are coordinated by the Director of Student Activities. The Commuter Services lounge is located on the second floor of Foster Hall. To participate one must be a full-time student in good standing with the University socially, financially, and academically with a grade point average of at least 2.5. February 15 is the application deadline. For more information, call the Office of Student Activities.

Student Government Association

Through membership in the Student Government Association (SGA), all regularly enrolled students participate in the government of the University. The purpose of the SGA is to develop a spirit of cooperation in the activities of the University; develop self-expression, self-control and leadership; encourage initiative; and create an intermediary between the administration and the students in matters of general welfare. The SGA shall be the official student governing body in all matters pertaining to the common interests of the student body.

Student Health Service

The Student Health Service delivers acute medical care to all VSU students. The Health Service exists to provide, in a welcoming environment, comprehensive and confidential medical care responsive to the needs of each student and consistent with the highest standards of acceptable medical practice. The focus of Virginia State University is on the promotion of good health through counseling, education and prevention of illness.

The Student Health Service is part of a multidimensional network of community health resources and makes specialty referrals for medical cases beyond its capacity.

Student Identification Card

Currently enrolled students must possess a valid Student Identification Card. This card is good for four-years upon revalidation at registration. Students use this care for health service, attendance at athletic events, dining hall, special activities and other related events.
Substance Abuse and Sexual Assault Prevention

The Office of Substance Abuse and Sexual Assault Prevention provides the University community with educational programming and facts about the negative effects associated with substance abuse and sexual assault. Programs and information are designed to educate students about the risks and consequences linked to alcohol and other drugs and the impact of sexual assault. Information is intended to enable students to make more informed and responsible choices and decisions. The office also publicizes information about the University Alcohol and Drug policy and Sexual Misconduct policy. Awareness events and risk-reduction programs are planned throughout the year and co-sponsored with other departments and student organizations to elicit campus-wide support in helping prevent substance abuse and sexual assault on campus. Assistance and counseling are offered to students with substance abuse or sexual assault related problems.
