ARTICLE IX.  AMENDMENTS
ARTICLE X.  APPENDIX
Virginia State University was founded on March 6, 1882, when the legislature passed a bill to charter the Virginia Normal and Collegiate Institute. The bill was sponsored by Delegate Alfred W. Harris, a Black attorney with offices in Petersburg, who lived in and represented Dinwiddie County in the General Assembly. A hostile lawsuit delayed opening day for nineteen months, until October 1, 1883. In 1902, the legislature revised the charter act to curtail the collegiate program and to change the name to Virginia Normal and Industrial Institute. In 1920, the land grant program for Blacks was moved from a private school, Hampton Institute, where it had been since 1872, to Virginia Normal and Industrial Institute. In 1923, the college program was restored, and the name was changed to Virginia State College for Negroes in 1930. The two-year branch in Norfolk was added to the college in 1944; the Norfolk division became a four-year branch in 1956 and gained independence as Norfolk State College in 1969. Meanwhile, the parent school was renamed Virginia State College in 1946. Finally, the legislature enacted a law in 1979 to provide the present name, Virginia State University.

In the first academic year, 1883-84, the University had 126 students and seven faculty (all of them Black), one building, 33 acres, a 200-book library, and a $20,000 budget.

The University is situated in Chesterfield County at Ettrick, on a bluff across the Appomattox River from the City of Petersburg. It is accessible via Interstate Highways 95 and 85, which meet in Petersburg. The University is only two and a half hours away from Washington, D.C., to the north, and the Raleigh-Durham-Chapel Hill area to the southwest, about one and a half hours away from Charlottesville to the northwest, and Virginia Beach to the southeast.

Virginia State University has a long history of outstanding faculty and administration.

A majority of the voting members shall be sufficient to transact any business with respect to said emergency, except declarations of fiscal exigency. Declarations of fiscal exigency must be made by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the voting members.

The Board shall request the presence of the University’s legal representative at all open and closed meetings and committee meetings except those where the President is being evaluated or presenting portions of his/her Annual Report dealing with the evaluation of university officers, unless otherwise directed by the Attorney General. At the Board’s discretion, it may request the presence of the University’s legal representative during evaluations if it is considering: (1) whether the party or parties involved are in breach of his/her contract; or (2) the Board is seeking legal advice about the amounts and methods of compensating the President or other officers involved.

The Board will require transparency, to the extent required by law, in all board discussions and actions. No proxies, secret, or written ballots are authorized in any board meeting.

Arrangements for telephonic or video meetings must be coordinated with the Board Secretary, or the Secretary’s designee and the Office of University Legal Counsel.

1.9 Communications to the Board. All communications of an official nature directed to the Board of Visitors shall be channeled through the Office of the President or the Office of University Legal Counsel.
