The VSU Graduate Research Symposium is a showcase of Graduate students’ research, scholarship, and creative endeavor.

Held every year in L. Douglas Wilder Building, the Research Symposium offers students the opportunity to actively participate in the VSU academic community.

The Symposium is open primarily to VSU graduate students to present their research, scholarship and creative achievement under the direction of a faculty mentor.

Why Participate?

- Participation in a symposium is an attractive addition to resumes and graduate school applications
- Taking part allows students to gain valuable experience presenting to a diverse audience
- Participants are able to network and gain an appreciation of the work of their peers and colleagues
- All participants are eligible to compete for best presentation
- Networking, refreshments, and door prizes are on hand.

How?

- Prepare your presentation with your faculty mentor’s guidance
- Enjoy the symposium
- Register to present and/or attend at http://tinyurl.com/o83lmwe
- Email questions to vgri@vsu.edu
